

A classroom scene with a chalkboard, a smaller board with sticky notes, and a desk with books and a globe. The chalkboard is the central focus, displaying the objective in white cursive text. Above it, a string of colorful triangular bunting hangs across the top. To the right, a smaller blackboard features a white squiggly line and two sticky notes, one yellow and one green. In the foreground, a wooden desk holds several colorful books and a small globe of the Earth.

Objetivo: Identificar elementos principales del golpe de estado en Chile.

Un golpe de Estado es la toma del poder político de un modo repentino por parte de un grupo de poder, vulnerando las normas legales de sucesión en el poder vigente con anterioridad.
